

I am absolutely opposed to any further loosening of the regulations regarding media ownership. We have already lost too much diversity in the offerings of news and entertainment choices. We have already suffered a loss of freedom in the reporting of news and in the choices available for quality music, print and TV viewing. Diversity and competition are what make this country a healthy and free nation. Don't concentrate control of information in the hands of a few who care only about profits.